

Sponsorships offer for the LibreOffice Conference 2019, Almería city, Spain

September 10-13

LibOCon is the annual gathering of the LibreOffice, Document Liberation Project and The Document Foundation community, now in its 9th year. At LibOCon, LibreOffice users gather to network and meet key LibreOffice developers, designers, localizers, documenters, supporters and marketers, and to learn about the latest in LibreOffice development. LibOCon is volunteers driven and not for profit. Attendance to the conference is free previous registration.

LibOCon 2018 features: keynotes about best practices in large migrations to LibreOffice, business and technical presentations, technology previews, customer case studies, hands-on labs, tracks about localization and certification, and the conference hack-night.

LibreOffice is the biggest and more important free/libre/opensource office suite in the world, ported to the most popular platforms and with an estimated user base of 200 millions or more worldwide. LibreOffice is the main opensource office suite alternative for proprietary, desktop or cloud, and one of the biggest and more relevant opensource initiatives in the world.

Supporting LibOCon 2019 our sponsors associates their brand with the spirit and leitmotif of LibreOffice also backing the work of extremely talented collaborators all over the world with real positive impact in society.

Sponsors are invited to participate according to the offer that best suits their needs.

The LibreOffice Conference organization also welcomes other innovative suggestions and ideas from potential supporters.

The proposed benefits for sponsors are:

Pre-Conference Promotion: supporters benefit from a number of promotional activities before LibOCon, including the logo and the company description on the website, a media announcement of the sponsorship, a mention in each press release about LibOCon and references in the conference social networks.

On-site Promotion: logo placement on conference and publicity materials, as well as other materials in the official LibOCon registration bag. Also the right for a stand (table plus banner) on the conference hall.
